

The Treatment of Influenza or La Grippe

It is quite refreshing these days to read of a clearly defined treatment for influenza or La Grippe. In an article in the "Lancet" Clinic, it is stated that the treatment of influenza is based on the fact that it is a disease of the respiratory tract, and that the treatment should be directed to the relief of the symptoms of the disease. The treatment should be directed to the relief of the symptoms of the disease, and should be continued until the patient is able to take food and drink. THE TURK'S MOVE MAY PUT ALL EUROPE INTO GREAT WAR

(Continued From Page 1.) To demand the surrender of the port. The governor promptly imprisoned them. There is keen interest here as to the attitude of the Balkan states. Bulgaria recently gave assurances that it would not take any action in the event of a war between Turkey and the allies. It is believed that the Balkan states are waiting for the outcome of the conflict. The Turkish move may put all Europe into great war.

THE TURK'S MOVE MAY PUT ALL EUROPE INTO GREAT WAR

(Continued From Page 1.) It was announced officially at Bordeaux today that two Turkish torpedo boats had been sighted off the coast of the Black Sea yesterday and had destroyed the Russian liner Portual. Unless Bulgaria joins the enemies of Turkey, an invasion of European Turkey by land is impracticable, according to the Turkish government. The Turkish navy, assisted by the former German cruisers Goeben and Breslau, is considered the most formidable force in the Black Sea. The Turkish move may put all Europe into great war.

THE TURK'S MOVE MAY PUT ALL EUROPE INTO GREAT WAR

(Continued From Page 1.) The state of Albania, considered a master piece of the diplomacy of the great powers, has effectively discredited the theories that she was a compact party by resolving herself into several separate governments, some of which are not recognized by the great powers. The Turkish move may put all Europe into great war.

In the Wake Of the War With Corey

No newspaper, no magazine, in America today is publishing more interesting or thrilling war articles than those by Herbert Corey. The famous magazine writer. The picture the human side of the conflict as no brief, censored cables can do.

At the beginning of the season the summer hotel keepers along the eastern coast made a desperate effort to keep things going as usual. RARE LONG-HORNED STEER WITH WILD WEST SHOW

One Animal's Horns Measure
Seven Feet From Tip to Tip

"There was a time," says Joseph C. Miller, the ranchman, "when thousands of long-horned cattle roamed the prairie lands of Texas and Oklahoma. According to well-authenticated tradition, the original long horns brought to America were pure Arabian, and were imported by a Spaniard by Cortez to insure subsistence for his soldiers. Their progeny gradually became wild and roamed all over the eastern and western plains. In the early days in Texas they were more or less domesticated and became an important part of the ranch products of the country.

"The long-horned steer, in his natural state, is long, lean and scrawny, and is not a better seller for the market than the long horns were crossed with short horns, and in this way the long horns of the old stock were gradually eliminated. It is no longer possible to raise long-horned cattle, and when the great herds of cattle occur it is simply a freakish reversion to a former condition. It will not occur more than once in several thousand calves, even though they have descended from the old Mexican stock."

There is, it is announced, a bunch of long horned steers with the 191 Ranch, Wild West show, but they have been sought for and selected with infinite care. Among the more than 15,000 head of cattle now on the 191 Ranch at Blue, Oklahoma, only five long horns were secured, says Mr. Miller. One of the long horns with the show is said to be valued at $1,000. Its horns are seven feet long, from tip to tip. The animal is to be shown in the show exhibits in Atlanta next Monday and Tuesday, and the preliminary parade.

CATARRH TROUBLE ENDED BY HYOMEL

An Inexpensive, Easily Used and Most Effective Remedy.

Surely try Hyomel, nature's harmless remedy for catarrh, colds, asthma, bronchitis, or croup of children. A treatment that not only gives quick and lasting benefit, but is pleasant to use.

Hyomel is not a cure-all, but a specific for distressing catarrh and similar ailments affecting the nose, throat and bronchial tubes. It does not drug the system. You breathe Hyomel go that its antiseptic medication at once reaches the irritated and diseased mucous membranes, breaks and soothes the sore spots, drives out the poison, and restores health to the delicate tissues.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.---Although indictments charging the Simmons Manufacturing company, of Kenosha, Wis., and the Western Pacific Railroad company with receiving and allowing indirect rebates were voted and drawn ten days ago by the federal grand jury, they were not returned when that body met again today. POSTAL SAVINGS BANK DEPOSITS ON INCREASE

Comparisons With Corresponding Periods of Last Year Show Big Gains

The postal savings bank, which has been in operation in Atlanta two and a half years, has received over $90,000 in deposits, representing 915 accounts and about 6,000 transactions.

A considerable amount of this has been withdrawn, or converted into government bonds bearing 2 1/2 per cent, leaving now on deposit $225,000.

For a comparison, the following figures for August, September and October will show the increase in deposits of 1914 over last year:

August, 1914, $12,155; August, 1913, $7,341, 66 per cent gain.

September, 1914, $4,706, 42 per cent gain; September, 1913, $3,297, 42 per cent gain.

October, 1914, $2,970; October, 1913, $1,700, 75 per cent gain.

The war in Europe is proving a big boost to postal savings in this country.

From the very day hostilities opened across the seas postal savings receipts began to increase by leaps and bounds.

Withdrawals fell off, a result quite contrary to the predictions of many well informed persons who, in their imagination, saw lines of feverish depositors at postoffice pay windows anxious to return their savings to the boot leg and bootleggers.

RUSSIANS LOOKING FOR NEW GERMAN ATTACKS

Kaiser's Troops Are Expected to Take the Offensive Again Soon

PETROGRAD, via London, Oct. 30.—General Maslov, military critic of the Novoye Vremya, in summing up the war situation in the east says:

"Although, generally speaking, the trend of the Russian military operations is becoming increasingly favorable, battles rage on all fronts with unprecedented tenacity and stubbornness. Not only the Germans but the Austrians, despite their recent defeat, are fighting with intense energy and it would not be surprising if the Germans should reinforce their fighting lines and again attempt to assume the offensive. At present, however, the Russians largely retain the initiative."

JUSTICE R. C. WATTS' SON IS MISTAKEN FOR BURGLAR

LAURENS, S. C., Oct. 30.—John Watts, 22 years old, son of Associate Justice Richard S. Watts, of the South Carolina supreme court, was shot and seriously wounded here yesterday by Eugene McWhorter, a merchant, who mistook the young man for a burglar.

The period, bringing the number of depositors in that city up to over 21,000. The unexpected increase in postal savings business has not only increased the credit to the general administrative duties of the system, but has brought up many new and interesting problems which have called for the careful personal consideration of Postmaster General Burdison and Governor Dockery, third assistant postmaster general.

But their task has been lightened somewhat by the promptness of depositors banks in furnishing additional security to meet the abnormal deposits. A number of the very largest banks in the country, which have heretofore declined to qualify as depositories for postal savings funds, are now among the eager applicants for them.

Two important results have followed: thousands of people, largely of foreign birth, accustomed to their postal savings abroad, are now patrons of our postal savings system; and enormous sums of actual cash have been released for commercial uses among our own people at a time when the need for every available dollar is pressing.

The growth of postal savings in the United States has been steady and healthy and the system has filled an important gap between the retail bank postoffice and the factory postoffice. On July 1, when the postal savings system was smoothly here and abroad and the transmission of money across the Atlantic was safe and expeditious, it was approximately $4,000,000 of postal savings standing to the credit of about 285,000 depositors. Since then, $19,000,000 of deposits have been added and the number of depositors has increased enormously. This unprecedented gain is the more striking when it is considered that the net gain in the last three months is larger than the gain for the entire fiscal year.

Offices have done more postal savings business since the war has been going on than was done by them during the previous existence of the service. The increases are confined to no special localities, but have been felt in every nook and corner of the country. New York City alone made a gain in September of more than a million, while Brooklyn showed a relatively big increase. Chicago reported a larger gain in the past three months than for the previous twelve months. More than 7,000 new accounts were opened during the month of September.

GEORGIA COTTON WANTED FOR WOUNDED IN FRANCE

Consul Prepared to Send Abroad All Contributions Made for Soldiers

Enormous quantities of cotton are needed in the hospitals of France and Belgium and on the battlefields for the wounded, and a plan has been inaugurated for sending some of Georgia's distressed cotton to Europe through Dr. F. E. May, of 163 Peachtree street, the French consul and the chairman of the Belgian relief fund.

Dr. May is prepared to ship all cotton sent him immediately to Limoges, France, where there is a giant plant, which sterilizes cotton, and from that point distributes it among the hospitals of the warring countries and on the battlefields.

Many Georgians, who patriotically joined the "buy-a-bale" movement, have no use for their cotton and the suggestion is made that they send it to Dr. May for shipment to the Red Cross and other hospital services of Europe.

Already two bales have been donated to the relief fund, and Dr. May has shipped them to Havre, France, en route to Limoges.

The Mitchell Motor company was one of the first to respond to the call for the solicitation of Charles Lortians, vice president of the Anglo-Franco-Belgian Relief committee, the management of the local branch announced that it would gladly turn over for use in Europe the bale which it bought at its

BULL MOOSERS AGAINST FARMERS, SAYS HOWARD

Not One Voted to Relieve the South in Recent Fight, He Declares.

Congressman William Schley Howard, Democratic nominee to succeed himself as the representative from the Fifth congressional district, Friday morning gave out a statement in which he challenges the sincerity of the claim of the Bull Moose party that it is friendly to the interests of the southern cotton grower.

Mr. Howard says that the Bull Moose candidates in Georgia are industriously seeking to convince the farmers of the state that they are their friends, notwithstanding the fact that the Bull Moose members of congress, without exception, vigorously opposed the efforts of the Democratic members to obtain remedial legislation for the cotton grower.

The statement of Mr. Howard follows: It was my intention to say many things regarding the attempt of the 'Bull Moose' party to enter the political field in Georgia.

"If those interested in launching a party were dealing candidly with the farmers of Georgia as to the relation of the so-called 'Progressive Party' to the farmer I would still say nothing.

"What are the facts? While ninety-one Democrats in the house from the cotton-producing states were fighting to the last ditch to secure legislation for the issuance of additional currency to be loaned to the producer of cotton at a low rate of interest, not one of our farmers would be enabled to hold their distress cotton for a period of twelve months, or until a spot market was established that would at least yield the cost of production and the profit, these adherents of 'Bull Moose' and Rooseveltism were standing solidly against the membership from the south.

"Those affiliating with this party in Georgia are attempting to lead the farmers of Georgia from the only party that has ever undertaken real constructive legislation in their interest.

"I ask the 'Bull Moose' candidates in Georgia why they did not exert their influence with the membership of the house of representatives representing their party to stand by us Democrats and vote with us for the cotton farmer? Why, your party did not have as much sympathy for the cotton farmer as the old stand pat Republican party had. We did get two votes from the Republicans, Austin, of Tennessee, and Morgan, of Oklahoma, but your party deserted us and laughed at our efforts for the distressed cotton producer of the south.

"Much criticism has been heaped upon a man who has fought day in and day out for the cotton farmers, because we failed to get that relief for which we exerted our every effort, but I hope those who are candidates upon the Bull Moose party will be honest enough to tell the farmers of Georgia, that they have been in our places and followed the example of those who reflected the sentiment of their party in Congress. They would have voted against any remedial legislation for the cotton farmers of the south."

Young Nelms Gives Alexander Evidence

Reviews Case Against Innes, Charged With Slaying Nelms Sisters

Marshall Nelms called on United States District Attorney Alexander Friday morning, and reviewed the evidence which he has accumulated against "Fritz" Innes.

Innes and his wife are still in jail at San Antonio, where they have been unable so far to make bond.

Mr. Alexander, of course, can take no action on the present case, but it is possible that the government may be able to proceed along a different line in another state. The nature of these proceedings was not disclosed.

Young Nelms claims that in every thing but producing the bodies of his sisters he has conclusive evidence against Innes.

HALLOWEEN WITCHES TO WORK FOR POOR

Masked Maidens Will Canvass Downtown Atlanta Saturday to Get Subscriptions for Closed Associated Charities

The true spirit of Halloween—mystery, frolic and with it, a genial touch of fellowship—will walk the streets of Atlanta Saturday for the Associated Charities.

The mystery of it is that witches will be to the walking, shrouded in black, masked and cloaked, long cap atop, broomstick in one hand, and in the other, a pumpkin with a slit in it.

The frolic is this—each witch will be a young Atlanta maid, disguised so well that while you talk to her and possibly drop a coin in her pumpkin, you may discover later that she was your sister or your best girl.

And the fellowship—what better fellowship than working in such a way for the Associated Charities and the hundreds of poor Atlanta folk who have been desolated by its disbanding?

PELLAGRA VICTIM IS AIDED BY STRANGERS

Two Women and Man Send in Money for Purchase of Medicine

The $3 which the pellagra victim told in Thursday's Journal was sent for medicine for a week has been supplied.

Before noon Friday, three people who read the story had sent $1 each to the Journal office, thus insuring her next week's medicine. Two were women, who requested that their names not be published. The other was J. J. Power, of Lakeland, Ga.

Another woman called at The Journal office and obtained the address of the woman who could not buy medicine because the Associated Charities had closed. She hopes to provide some way whereby the woman can obtain medicine during the many weeks to come in which she will need it.

Another poor woman came to The Journal office Friday with another story of poverty and pleaded for aid from the Associated Charities, now starting her in the face.

She, too, requested that her name be withheld from print, but gave it for reference. For two years this woman has been struggling to support herself, her mother, her grandmother and her three children, two boys, ages nine and seven, and a little girl, aged three.

There are no men in the family, but this woman and her mother work, while the grandmother stays home with the children. Last week, the mother, employed in a pants' factory, was laid off from work. The woman, who works in a printing shop, has had but one-half day's employment this week.

They are "up against it" for on the first of next month the rent of their little cottage $12.00, is due. There is no money in the house to pay. There is no work to get money. "The landlord," she says, "has been kind, but he can't help putting us out if we don't pay."

Once before, when this happened, the Associated Charities came to the rescue. Their rent was paid by them, and later she paid back the charities. This time the Associated Charities to which she applied Friday morning, was closed.

JACK LETTON MAY BE JOHNSON'S SUCCESSOR

Friends Want to See Him Get Place on Police Board

With the resignation of George E. Johnson from the police board, plans are afoot among certain members of the sixth ward delegation to choose Jack Letton, lessee of the Winecoff hotel, to succeed him.

Commissioner Johnson's resignation will be presented to council Monday. When it becomes effective on the sixteenth, it is generally understood that he will be appointed to succeed Nath I. Broyles on the recorder's bench, in accordance with his nomination to this position at the recent primary. Judge Broyles' resignation becomes effective on the same day. He quits to take his seat on the court of appeals.

It has been the custom in the past for council to fill vacancies on the police board by conforming to the majority choice of the ward to be represented. It is known that friends of Mr. Letton in the sixth ward are working for his place, although there is practically certain to be opposition.

The election to the vacancy on the board cannot be held until the council meeting on November 16, two weeks from the acceptance of Mr. Johnson's resignation.

NAVAL STORES INTERESTS FEAR BRITISH WARSHIPS

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 13.—Naval stores interests in the south, it was announced here last night, have requested Senator Fletcher of Florida, to ask the state department to endeavor to obtain assurances from Great Britain that shipments of naval stores, with shipments of cotton, will not be molested by British warships when transported in British or neutral bottoms. Naval stores are a valuable commodity, and the interests of the south are contrabanded.

What better day in the whole year for shopping for children than Hallowe'en, what better place, than The Junior Department—the children's own store!

We Have Gathered Into The Junior Department The Daintiest Little Dancing Dresses

Here is one of pink chiffon over net. Very simple, with girle plaited bow and the waist, perfectly straight, of accordion plaited chiffon.

Another is of mauis chiffon, accordion plaited, a very wide girle, basque bodice; the skirt is in flounces of lace and chiffon.

Another of thread run net, the skirt in ruffles, the bodice of net and chiffon, a wide pale blue taffeta girle, a rich pink rose corsage.

Another—but they are so many!

One of a kind, they are lovely affairs for young women of all types. Priced at $12.50, $15, $17.50, $18.50 to $25.

Let us call this a display—and invite you to see them as things of beauty, whether you desire to own one or not.

Girls' Coats in Big, Splendid Varieties

Sizes 1 year to 7 years and 6 to 14 years.

About as many coats as there are types of children to wear them.

In the little girl sizes (1 to 7)—serges, Bedford cords, broadcloths, mixtures, plaids, kerseys, corduroys, velvets, plushes—but still it is not the variety of fabrics so much as the way these fabrics have been used by smart makers. Here's a velvet rather blousy through the waist, with the fullness gathered into a belt placed very low; here's another, of kersey, that has a yoke of velvet; here one with a close-fitting fur collar; another with imitation ermine on a flat collar; another has a caracul belt; many have little capes, and some hoods, lined with plaid silks.

Priced from $3.50 to $12.50.

For the larger girl (sizes 6 to 14) coats for school wear, for afternoon and for dress occasions. The charmingest styles are developed in broadcloths, zibelines, plaids (wonderfully rich), homes. Many of them have capes, many simulate the grown-ups' redingotes, with flaring skirts, many have wide girdles, velvet yokes. See them in their colors!

$5.00, $6.50 up and up to $20.00.

Boys' Coats—Smart and Boyish

We speak of coats in sizes 1 year to 7 years. They are relieved of that stiffness and tameness of the coats we usually see for the little fellows.

It's much a matter of the fabrics used, also it is much a matter of the tailoring, the style. Chinchillas, mixtures, meltons, serges, shepherd checks. Regulation straight coats, little reefers, box coats, belted, Norfolk and even Balmacaans.

Priced at $3.50 to $10.00.

FRANKLIN CORN GROWERS ESTABLISH NEW RECORD

Policy of "Produce It at Home" Prevails Among County's Planters

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) CAINESVILLE, Ga., Oct. 13.—The Franklin County Corn club met here Friday with sixty exhibitors. The greatest number of bushels per acre are as follows:

Bethel Edwards, 156 bushels; Clayton Cole, 120 bushels; Dewey Bellamy, 114 bushels; J. P. Owen, 114 bushels; Raymond Cole, 107 bushels; Dewitt Shirley, 106 bushels; Dalton Cole, 101 bushels.

The first prize this year exceeds any previous record the yield per acre in this county, and it will be remembered that this was under difficulties, as the seasons were very unfavorable.

The farmers present reported a great quantity of grain that is being sown throughout the county, and an enthusiastic spirit of "produce it at home" policy seems to predominate.

HEALTHY HAIR, SOFT, FLUFFY AND LUSTROUS

BIG VOTE IS EXPECTED
IN TUESDAY'S ELECTIONAll Georgia Democrats Urged to Vote for Party's Nominees

From all sections of the state come reports indicating that the Democrats do not intend to be caught off their guard on next Tuesday, the day of the regular state and national elections. For years it has been customary for the Democrats to consider that the primary settled matters and that the elections were mere formal ratifications of the nominations made in the primaries.

This condition of affairs has resulted in a widespread indifference as regards the general elections and for this reason the vote in these elections has always been exceedingly light. This year, however, the Bull Moose are making a determined effort to get a foothold in Georgia and are bending their energies toward inducing Democrats to bolt the nominees of their party primary.

It is not to be expected that the opposition's efforts will meet with any great success, but the state Democratic executive committee and the party's state organizations are urging the Democrats to turn out in force next Tuesday so that there can be no mistake as to the strength of the party in Georgia. It is desired that an unusual large vote be polled as a rebuke to the nominees of the Democratic party.

The Bull Moose have out candidates for the United States senate and in some districts they have put out congressional candidates. In some counties they also have candidates for the legislature.

The polling places in the city of Atlanta for next Tuesday's elections follow:

First Ward—10 South Forsyth street.
Second Ward—Pulton county court house.
Third Ward—Hunter at Fraser.
Fourth Ward—No. 4 Luckie street.
Fifth Ward—Medlock's pharmacy, Lee and Gordon streets.
Sixth Ward—Peachtree and Tenth.
Seventh Ward—Hinton Drug company.
Eighth Ward—Tucker & McMurphy's store.

CHIEF BEAVERS IGNORED
BY POLICE COMMITTEEApplications for Boarding House Permits Referred to Board Chairman

The police committee of council Thursday afternoon made a significant change in its routine procedure by voting to place before a dozen applications for the chairman for investigation instead of in the hands of Chief of Police Beavers.

No mention of the grand jury investigation or statements by Chief Beavers was made at the meeting, but after the applications for permits for boarding houses had been read, the usual motion to refer them to the police department for investigation was not made. Finally Councilman Claude Lee did move that the action on the applications be deferred for an investigation by the chairman, Councilman A. R. Colcord. The motion was not opposed.

One application, made some time ago, which had been referred to the chief and disapproved by him, came before the committee. Councilman Jesse B. Lee stated that the applicant had no police record despite the fact that the police department did not approve of her.

After some discussion it appeared as if the committee would not grant the permit despite Chief Beavers' veto, but finally a motion to defer action until Monday afternoon, when council meets, was made and it prevailed.

GEO. E. ROBERTS, MINT
DIRECTOR, HAS RESIGNEDResignation Will Become Effective
When Accepted
by President Wilson

(The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—George E. Roberts, of Fort Dodge, Iowa, director of the mint, has resigned. It was announced at the treasury department today that the resignation would be effective when accepted by President Wilson.

Mr. Roberts probably will return to the banking business which he left in 1910 to become director of the mint for the second time. His first service in the treasury department was from 1898 to 1899. Mr. Roberts was consulted frequently by officials of the Democratic administration when the new currency law was being framed. He is a Republican, but it was stated at the treasury his resignation was entirely voluntary and would be accepted with regret.

ATLANTA RAISES $800 FOR BELGIUM'S RELIEF

One Piece of Knitting, Donated by Woman, Brings $10 Cash

Just before the people, vaudeville for the relief of the people of Belgium began at the Grand theater Thursday night, Mrs. Jane A. Adams, of 216 1/2 street, approached Mr. F. E. May, secretary of the local committee.

"I haven't any money, I can give no Belgium," she told him, "but here is some knitting I have been doing. Sell it, and give what it brings."

So it was that midway of the performance, Dr. May mounted the stage and held up a tiny bit of sewing. He told its story.

"What an aid for it?" he cried. "Six dollars," shouted a man in a box, and "seven" came from across the house. Bidding rose fast and furious. Mrs. Adams wanted that knitting. They were buying for Belgium. It was Charles Landrum, standing up in front row and waving his fingers, who finally got it. Ten dollars was what the woman who had no money to give, procured for Belgium.

This was the spirit, typified by a woman's mite, that relieved supreme in the grand. Vaudeville is supposed to be funny, and part of this vaudeville was, but throughout it brooded a sense of the nation and the distress which had called that audience together. The appeal from across the seas of a destructive nation, which in the only of the comedian and the strain of "Tipper," and the voices of Atlanta society, when a play-acting.

When Mrs. Frank Pearson began "It's a long, long way to Tipperary," they joined with her until the whole house was afloat, and when she fell on "A Call to Arms" there was a surprise of over-coming feeling before the applause broke.

"A Call to Arms" was a dramatic opera built on war, written by A. C. Weller and cleverly presented by the following cast: A girl, Mrs. W. C. Jara, her mother, Mrs. W. P. Nicholson, her father, Mr. J. M. Mithel, her sister, Miss Callie Hoke Smith; her maid, Mrs. Hanson Wright; an army doctor, P. Thornton Mayer; his friend, Hamilton Douglas, Jr.; his soldier servant, W. P. Clarke; a business man, Miss Saul.

The performance opened with a beautiful tableau, "War," posed by Miss Katherine Ellis. The Daddys, champions on paper manipulators, followed by acts were moving pictures loaned by the Universal Film company. Miss Fidler and Mr. Haynes in modern dances; William Morrow, Miss Pauline DeWitt and Miss Phyllis Wilkins, all pupils of Prof. Victor C. Zeyl, in fancy dances; the great Howard from the Forsyth; Billy Smith and the Royal Pavlova Gavotte, arranged and conducted by Prof. J. H. Mahler, and presented by the Joseph Harkness chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, with the dancers, Mrs. Charles Remsen, Mrs. Sarah Tilt, Mrs. John Somerville, Mrs. Ten Eyck Brown, Mrs. Ida Howell Cramer, Mrs. Dudley Cowles, Mrs. Arthur Powell, Mrs. W. J. Blacklock, Mrs. Ben Lee Crew, Mrs. W. H. Kiser, Mrs. Linton Hopkins. The vaudeville was as great a success financially as it was artistically. Nearly $800 was taken in, announced Henry L. DeWitt, the local Belgian consul. Mr. DeWitt labors to thank Atlanta for her response in his own name, and the name of the people of Belgium.

WIFE FROM BELGIUM. The following telegram was read at the vaudeville by Dr. May who received it from Mrs. Helen Washington, wife of the Belgian minister at Washington. It reads as follows:

Estimates this morning placed the loss resulting from the conflagration at $185,000, about half covered by insurance.

The fire was a spectacular one and as building that covered 50,000 square feet together with its contents was reduced to ashes in less than eight hours. A high wind was blowing at the time of the fire and one section of the fire was seriously damaged for several hours.

J. W. Coleman and brother, owners of the warehouse declare they believe the fire was incendiary origin. The fire followed an explosion which suddenly developed the whole building.

"My own name, please thank the good people of Atlanta for their contribution in front of Pink Cherry's market, because the car was moving and further because he carried in his hand a gallon jug of gasoline and another package, his attempt was not successful.

The conductor saw him run out from the sidewalk, and had rung the car to stop at "Vladet" place, for him, when Mr. Sheper caught the hand rail and tried to get aboard."

Keep Your Lungs Strong

This advice is doubly important with the knowledge that every three minutes some one in the United States succumbs to consumption and may refuse to realize they are afflicted until it is too late.

It is after colds, sickness, from overwork, continuing duties or when general weakness exists that tubercular germs drive because the resistive powers of the body are weakened.

Only with fresh air, sunshine and abundant rich blood can one hope to arrest their progress, and the concentrated fats in Scott's Emulsion furnish fuel for rich blood, and its rare nourishment helps strengthen the lungs while it builds up the forces.

If you work indoors, tire easily, feel languid or run-down Scott's Emulsion is the most strengthening food-medicine known and is free from alcohol or stupefying drugs. Adopt substitutes.

COTTON PRICES CAUSE FARMER TO TAKE LIFE

Despondent Over Reverses, Cobb County Citizen Cuts His Throat

Breeding over the low price of cotton, J. D. Armstrong, a farmer, living on the Sandtown road, Cobb county, Thursday morning committed suicide by slashing his throat with a razor, according to his son, J. D. Jr., who found the body of his father in the barn, some hours later.

He is survived by his wife, two sons and three daughters. The funeral was held Friday morning at 11 o'clock from the Mount Pisgah church and interment was in the churchyard.

MRS. ROBERT H. SMITH ASKS COURT FOR DIVORCE

Husband Refused to Help-Pay for Son's Funeral, She Says

Alleging that Robert H. Smith, a promoter earning as much as $5,000 a year, deserted her shortly after the death of her son, Leonard H. Smith, seven years old, and then refused to pay any part of the funeral expenses amounting to $250, Mrs. Carrie B. Smith filed suit Friday in the superior court for divorce, alimony and possession of her child, Montine, twelve years old.

Mrs. Smith says she and Robert H. Smith were married November 8, 1912. He deserted her, she says, in September, 1913, after beating her with a certain pole and kicking her in the small of the back, causing a permanent injury.

Mrs. Smith also alleges that her husband, since deserting her, returned to Atlanta at different times and annoyed her. She asks an injunction to prohibit this.

SOUTHERN GROCERS TO DEMAND COTTON BAGS

Jobbers Tell Flour Millers Jute Must Go After This Month

Notice has been given by southern wholesale grocers to flour mills that after November 1 they will not accept flour unless it is packed in cotton bags. The grocers have for several weeks been urging the mills to substitute cotton bags for jute and they will now insist that all flour handled by them be enclosed in cotton bags.

It is estimated by the Atlanta chamber of commerce, which has been supporting the movement to substitute cotton for jute, that such a general substitution will result in the consumption of a million bales of cotton a year.

PLAYERS' CLUB PLAN WAR BENEFIT DRAMA

"His Model Wife," a drama, will be presented by the Players' club of the Epworth church in the auditorium of the Edgewood public school, November 20 at 8 p. m. Proceeds from the play will be used in extending the work of the missionaries in the European battle fields.

Abundant skill and talent have been engaged in the production and a high level of performance is assured. The leading parts will be taken by E. C. Buchanan, Lester E. Lanford, Miss Mabel Hardin and Carl Watson.

MOTHER! IT'S CRUEL TO FORCE OIL OR CALOMEL INTO A SICK CHILD.

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "pinks" that mother used to insist on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little insides are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleaning, give "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is gentle, but gentle. Millions of mothers know this harmless "fruit laxative" because they know children love to take it. It never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow. It should be a first remedy given as it always does good, never any harm.

Ask your druggist for a Sarsaparilla bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits on each bottle. See that it is made by the California Fig Syrup Company. Beware of other kind with counterfeit names.

BY ISABELLE ORMOND THOMAS

ALBANY, Ga., Oct. 30.—A meeting of the state executive board Friday morning, brought to a close the most interesting session in the history of the state federation. The determination of Georgia women to avert the present cotton crisis was shown in brilliant speeches made by present members of the executive board. They sounded the "Made in America" slogan.

The election of officers was the interesting and exciting event of Thursday afternoon. Contrary to expectation the report of the nominating committee was accepted and nominations were from the floor. Mrs. H. B. S. Morgan, of Savannah, occupied the following offices:

After a stormy session the following officers were elected for two years: President, Mrs. Z. I. Fitzpatrick, Thomasville; vice president, Mrs. J. E. Hayes, Albany; secretary, Mrs. J. E. Hayes, Albany; treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Hayes, Albany; and recording secretary, Mrs. W. H. Hines, Cuthbert.

Rosa Woodberry, Atlanta; state editor, Mrs. Harvie Jordan, Atlanta.

Important resolutions were presented and adopted including resolutions by Mrs. Nellie Peters Black to introduce textile training for girls in schools and another to avert the present cotton crisis, and a resolution for every Georgia club woman to send a button badge to suffering Belgian children. The movement to establish an infirmary at the University of Georgia was introduced in a resolution and adopted.

Peace resolutions were offered by Miss Alice Baxter, chairman of the peace committee, and a vote of thanks was extended for the hospitality of Albany.

Reports from the district presidents occupied a large part of Thursday evening, and later a dramatic reading by Mrs. W. C. Spiker, gave pleasure to the large audience.

Two large social events marked the conference. The first was a luncheon at the Albany country club at noon, and an elegant banquet tendered the officers and delegates at the Elks hall in the evening. Mrs. W. C. Holt, president of the Woman's club of Albany, and Mrs. Fitzpatrick responded to the toasts.

Miss Peabody Gives Morning Bridge Party

A beautiful event of Friday morning was the bridge party at which Miss Mary Peabody entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Peabody, on Springdale road.

A profusion of yellow and white chrysanthemums adorned the pretty home in the score cards and menu the Halloween season was suggested.

Miss Peabody made a charming young hostess wearing a morning gown of velvet and chiffon. She was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. William Peabody, and her sisters, Miss Carrie Peabody and Mrs. Obed Lombard.

A pair of silk hose and a box of dainty crepe de chine handkerchiefs were awarded as prizes.
